CHARACTER.

Character is the essential thing the foundation stone of all worthy achievement. No matter how talented a man may be, no matter how generous opportunity may be to him, he can accomplish nothing permanent without character. Without character sincere friendship cannot be had, nor confidence, nor support; and when these things fail a man's career is ended. But it is not enough for a man to be able to make a front in this world; he must have a back also. He must be four-square. He must be solid. He must have character bottoming it all. He must not only be able to make friends and inspire confidence; he must deserve them and be able to keep them.

SPRING MUSICAL FESTIVAL

The coming musical festival in Jacksonville, April 19, and 20, will mark the greatest musical event that has ever taken place in that city's musical history. It marks the first appearance of the famous New York Symphony Orchestra, with Walter Damrosch as conductor, in Jacksonville, and also the first appearance of the Jacksonville Choral Society in oratorio.

The festival will consist of four splendid concerts at which the New York Symphony Orchestra and Walter Damrosch will be assisted by four celebrated soloists: Mrs. Corinne Rider-Kelsey, soprano; Nevada von der Veer, altoist; Reed Miller, tenor, and Gustaf Holmquist, basso, the final concert being the rendering of "The Creation," in which the Jacksonville Choral Society, a chorus of 250 trained voices, will appear.

With such an elaborate program, it is evident that all seats will be sold long before the first concert, and for this reason, the managers advise the music loving readers to make immediate application to the secretary of the Choral Society, Mr. T. T. Elmore, of Jacksonville. Orders from DeLand will be numbered in rotation and reservations made in accordance.

The single admission will be $2—for the series only $5.

It is expected that the A. C. L. will make special rates to Jacksonville for this event, thus giving everyone the opportunity of hearing the famous interpreter of the world's master musicians, Walter Damrosch.
